

Women's and Gender Studies Program

Montgomery College

On Their Shoulders We Stand Award and Nomination Process

Each year, we celebrate and honor those who have made significant contributions to supporting and uplifting gender equity, whether through mentorship programs, advocacy initiatives, leadership roles, or other impactful activities that promote gender awareness, inclusivity, and diversity. This award celebrates the dedication and commitment of people in our community who are champions of gender equity, empowerment, and leadership.

The Women's and Gender Studies Program (WGSP) is thrilled to invite nominations for the prestigious "On Their Shoulders We Stand" Award, which celebrates outstanding contributions by faculty, staff, or administrators who have shown dedication to the Women and Gender Studies program and students in their academic and leadership journeys. Nominated individuals should demonstrate exceptional leadership, mentorship, and advocacy for gender equity and empowerment within the college community. Your nomination plays a vital role in recognizing these efforts and inspiring future generations.

Submission Guidelines: To nominate yourself or a deserving colleague for this esteemed award, please prepare and submit the following materials to wgsp@montgomerycollege.edu

- Nomination Letter: A compelling letter outlining the nominee's contributions and impact in empowering students and advocating for gender equity (maximum 500 words).
- Curriculum Vitae (CV) or Resume: Highlighting relevant experiences, achievements, and contributions related to supporting students and gender equity (maximum 2 pages).
- Supporting Documentation: Optional but encouraged. This may include testimonials from students, colleagues, or other supporting materials that demonstrate the nominee's influence and impact.
- Submission Deadline: Please submit all nomination materials by November 15, 2024.
- Selection Process: A selection committee composed of Women and Gender Studies Program representatives will review all nominations. They will evaluate each nominee based on the details above.